RE: Defendants: Robert Ross and George Kundrat

Dear Victim Name:

Pursuant to federal law, you are entitled to be notified of the court proceedings relating to the criminal litigation of this case. This letter is to inform you of the following:

The following information concerns Defendant Robert Ross associated with USAO Case 2004R00674 and Court Docket Number 3:05CR165 and Defendant George Kundrat associated with USAO Case 2004R00676 and Court Docket Number 3:05CR172:

Charges have been filed against defendant(s), Robert Ross and George Kundrat, by Information. The main charge is categorized as Securities Fraud. The lead prosecutor for this case is Assistant U.S. Attorney, Michael S. McGarry.

In 2003, New Haven Savings Bank (NHSB) adopted a conversion plan to convert from a privately held mutual savings bank to a public capital stock savings bank and as such became a subsidiary of New Alliance Bancshares, Inc.(NAB). NHSB offered to sell its shares through a "subscription offering" in which five tiers of buyers would be offered the stock through an initial public offering.

As a crime victim, you have the following rights under 18 United States Code § 3771:

(1) The right to be reasonably protected from the accused; (2) The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding, or any parole proceeding, involving the crime or of any release or escape of the accused; (3) The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at that proceeding; (4) The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea, sentencing, or any parole proceeding; (5) The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case; (6) The right to full and timely restitution as provided in law; (7) The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay; (8) The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

On June 28, 2005, the defendant, Robert Ross, pled guilty to the charges listed below. As a result of the guilty plea, there will be no trial involving this defendant. Robert Ross admitted that he and several associates, none of whom were depositors and none whom held subscription rights, devised a scheme to buy NAB stock using the subscription rights of other depositors and resell those shares at a profit.

Number of Charges	Description of Charges	Disposition
1	Securities Fraud	Guilty

On July 7, 2005, the defendant, George Kundrat, pled guilty to the charges listed below. As a result of the guilty plea, there will be no trial involving this defendant. George Kundrat admitted that he along with several associates, none of whom were eligible to buy the stock in the initial public offering participated in a scheme to buy New Alliance Bank stock using the subscription rights of eligible depositors and to resell those shares at a profit.

Number of Charges	Description of Charges	Disposition
1	Conspiracy to commit offense or to defraud US	Guilty
